

Könyvtári Figyelő

Special issue

Meeting of librarians Hungarian by birth and living abroad and of Hungarian librarians
Budapest, 1980. VIII. 11–15.

CONTENTS

HAVASI Zoltán: Introduction	5
List of foreign participants	7
SZABÓ Zoltán: Inaugural address	9

About Hungarian librarianship

SÁRDY Péter: Survey of the development and condition of Hungarian librarianship	13
HAVASI Zoltán: Role, significance of Hungarian library collections abroad in the development and spreading of Hungarian science and culture	18
PAPP István: Some features of international relations carried out by Hungarian librarianship	24

Problems of reading in their mother tongue and book provision for Hungarians living abroad

KABDEBO, Thomas: Pars pro toto? What do Hungarians, living in the West, read?	31
KÁDÁR, Péter: City Library, Göteborg and acquisition of Hungarian books	41
GALAMBOS, Franz: How was the library in the Órség (Austria) established?	43

Hungarian book collections available in libraries abroad, problems of their development and processing, collecting and registering of Hungarica

HORCHLER, Gabriel: Classification and subject catalogue in the Library of Congress, their significance in the processing of Hungarian materials	47
MURAKÖZY-BORSOS, Nora: Hungarica in the Bilbiothèque Nationale, Paris	53
SZMUK, Szilvia E.: The New York Public Library and its stock relating to Hungary	58

SZMUK, Szilvia E.: A particular book collection in New Brunswick connected with Hungary	62
KESZTYÜS, Tibor: The University Library, Göttingen and its Finn-Ugrian stock . .	64
DOBOZY, Mária: The Princeton University Library	66
KOZÁK, Réka: Preparation of a Hungarica bibliography based on the collection of the Washington University Library, St. Louis	68
OROSZLÁN, Judit: National union catalogue of Northern-America	73
BASA, Péter: The American data base of Hungarica	78
RAJEC, Elizabeth: Accessioning – lending – cooperation as seen by an American librarian, Hungarian by birth	82
CZIGÁNY, Magda: Some problems of Hungarica collecting and data processing . . .	85
STEIN, Rose: Hungarica material at the Columbia University Butler Library, New York. Hungarian and Austrian oral historical collection	89
BRÓDY, Judit: How does the Science Museum Library, London attend the studying of the Hungarian history of science	93
BIRÓ, Ruth G.: Possibilities of the exchange of information, publications and persons in the library research work of Hungary and the United States	95

Computerization, cooperation

KOVÁCS, Gábor: Automation and cooperation	101
KRIVÁTSY, Péter: Activities, services offered by the American National Library of Medicine and its Hungarica stock	104
GYÖRGYÉY, Ferenc: Mechanical revolution of our profession	106
MOLNÁR-BASA, Enikő: MARC system in the Library of Congress	110
HAVASI Zoltán: Summary	113
SZABÓ Zoltán: Final speech	116