

CONTENTS

TAXATION AND TAXPAYERS

Lajos RÁCZ	”Where are you from?” Fragment of an Interview with Pál Beluszky	5
Tamás Fedeles	The Path of Money: The Geography and Dynamics of Financial Relations between the Curia and Hungary in the Late Middle Ages	11
Ágoston Nagy	Nobles on Urbarial Plots and the Estates’ Society as Seen in the Diet of 1825–27	35
Petra Mátyás-Rausch	Customs Revenues in the Service of Mechanisms of Power: The Significance of the Thirtieth in Transylvania in the First Half of the Seventeenth Century	62
János Nagy	The Cities and the Tax Issue in the 1764–65 National Assembly as Reflected in Reports by the Representatives of the City of Pest	87
Botond Nagy	Burden for the Benefit of the Village: Municipal Supplementary Taxation in Háromszék during the Age of Dualism	104
Judit Pál	The Price of Local Self-Governance: The Costs of County Administration after the Act 42 of 1870	126
Zsuzsanna Kollár	The Role of Donations in the Founding of the School for the Deaf in Vác	158

BOOKS

Not “malenky robot” – a New Approach to the History of the Deportation of the People of German Origin Márkus Beáta: „Csak egy csepp német vér”. A német származású civilek Szovjetunióba deportálása Magyarországról 1944/1945. – Gergely Kunt	184
Sudár Balázs – Varga Szabolcs – Varga J. János: Pécs története III. A hódoltság korában (1543–1686). – Adrienn Papp	189
Kurucz György: „Kedves Hazámiai, mozdulni kell...” Georgikoni peregrinatio oeconomica a 19. század elején. – Krisztián Bödő	194
Authors	199
Contents	201
Abstracts	203